To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

DIVIDED DECLARED.—The Connecticut and Passumpsic R. R. Company has declared another semi-annual dividend of three per cent., payable now.

WELL DONE.—At the Concert of the 7th Regiment Band, at Burlington, on Tuesday evening, the net proceeds were $334.

ORLEANS COUNTY FAIR.—The Newport Express says that the Orleans County Fair will be held on the new grounds in Barton on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 15 and 16. The premium list amounts to $800, and $3,000 have been expended in fitting up the grounds and buildings. There is every reason to believe that it will be the best show ever held in the county.

BURGLARY.—The dwelling-house of Uber Blair in Burlington was entered in the absence of himself and wife, Tuesday afternoon, a trunk broken open and twenty-five dollars in greenbacks abstracted. Charles Gaboury was brought before Acting Recorder Hollenbeck charged with the crime, and after a hearing was ordered to furnish bail to the amount of $100 to await trial at the County Court; failing to furnish the same was sent to jail.

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—Washington Clapp, editor of the Natick, while walking from his residence to his office in Natick Wednesday morning was seized with an apoplectic fit, and died in the street.

D. N. GIBB, of Salem, has shown the editor of the Newport Express a book published in London in 1702. It is 166 years old but still in good preservation.

At the meeting of the Corporation of the University Tuesday evening, the resignation of J. S. Adams, removed to Florida, was accepted, as a member of the Board, and Hon. Worthington C. Smith of St. Albans, was unanimously chosen in his place. —Times.

A Lady visitor at the Champlain Spring, in Highgate, lost a $500 diamond, during an excursion in the woods.

MORE SHOOTING IN SHREWSBURY.—Notwithstanding the fatal results growing out of the difficulty between the Balch and Plumley families in Shrewsbury, which we have already chronicled, it seems the end is not yet.

Tuesday evening, about five o'clock, as Daniel Balch stepped from the door of his father's residence, to the yard, a ball struck him in the forehead, but fortunately glanced off, inflicting a severe flesh wound, but no serious damage was done.

The ball was fired from a weapon in the hands of some person unknown, who was at the time concealed in a clump of bushes near the residence of Balch, and a man was seen running from the hiding place just after the firing of the shot. —Herald.

Gen. Carl Schurz made a speech in German, in Indianapolis, on the 21st ult. A Democratic Journal says he argued strongly for negro suffrage everywhere, on the financial question, he said that the bonds must not be taxed, and must be paid in gold; if they were taxed or paid in greenbacks, the nation would become one grand scoundrel.

Although Gen. Blair has passed through Indiana twice since the New York Convention, and in each case it was generally known that he was on board of the train, no Democratic committee bid him welcome, nor was any invitation given him to speak. This was not the reception that was accorded to Mr. Colfax in Ohio and Illinois.

The Jefferson (Texas) Ku-Klux (Seymour and Blair) says: "We well know that if our standard-bearers shall be made to trail our proud banner in the dust, that then the expiring shriek of a cherished freedom will be heard, and a night of eternal gloom and misrule will be ours." And further: "How shall we obviate a war of races? There is no way under the broad canopy of heaven, without it is driving from our midst these low, mean white men. With them out of the country, the negroes and white people could get along peaceably and quietly; but if they are allowed to remain in our midst, just so sure we are bound to have a war of races, and when there is one drop of blood spilt, we predict that it will flow as freely as does the Mississippi."

Here is a new song to an old measure: General Blair came to town Riding a new hobby. He stuck a war-plume in his hat, The Rebels thought it "nobly." General Blair! ha! ha! ha! The General found it handy; But the country knows that he would be No better than one Andy.

You might look far, and not find a better tribute to Grant than the following:

I would rather have Grant, if he's silent and still, Than an empty declaimer of words; I would rather have Grant, with his good honest will.

Than one from noisy political hordes.

His deeds are well written in the face of the world, And he who desires can read them afar; He stands forth to-day with his banner unfurled, In the light of his acts—Our National Star.

The Boston Post, the leading Democratic newspaper of New England, said of Schuyler Colfax in 1863: "He is an intelligent, active, working man; a good printer, a good editor, a good citizen, and has discharged his duty conscientiously, we have no doubt, as a public man."

DOCTOR OBEID GRIDLEY.—The Renowned and Celebrated Naturopathic Physician, for the natural treatment of diseases, weakness and infirmities, without the use of poisonous drugs and painful surgery, will by particular request of many friends, visit at St. Albans for the third time, for the purpose of healing the sick and afflicted, and will remain at the St. Albans House from Aug. 16th to Sept. 3d. Chronic Diseases Cured. He was born with natural curative powers, and for years past he has been practicing the healing art with such success that he has astonished the nation. Much excitement prevailed in the numerous cities and towns, which Dr. Gridley has visited during his many years of travel throughout the United States. During this time he has performed numerous cures that were really wonderful. The Dr. has had many testimonials from many prominent, respectable and honorable citizens, testifying to his superior method and skill of treating disease. Did the invalid world but know what a remarkable gift Dr. Gridley possesses of discovering the character and location of diseases, and his skill in prescribing a remedy, he could not attend to half the patients who would flock to him for relief. The Dr. feels confident in stating to the public that he is capable of rendering cures of all diseases flesh is heir to, if they are of a curable nature. All those desiring his mode of treatment, should call soon upon his arrival. Send for circulars. w-2-t.
